

Vulcan installed at:
Enel Green Power in Italy

Model installed:
Vulcan S250

Enel is an established leader in renewable energy production. Enel generates just under half of the power from completely carbon-neutral sources, preventing 70 million tons of CO2 emissions.

Enel manage the most digitized grids in the world in Italy and Iberia respectively. Today 38 million of our European customers have smart meters installed.

